

Their first day
at college

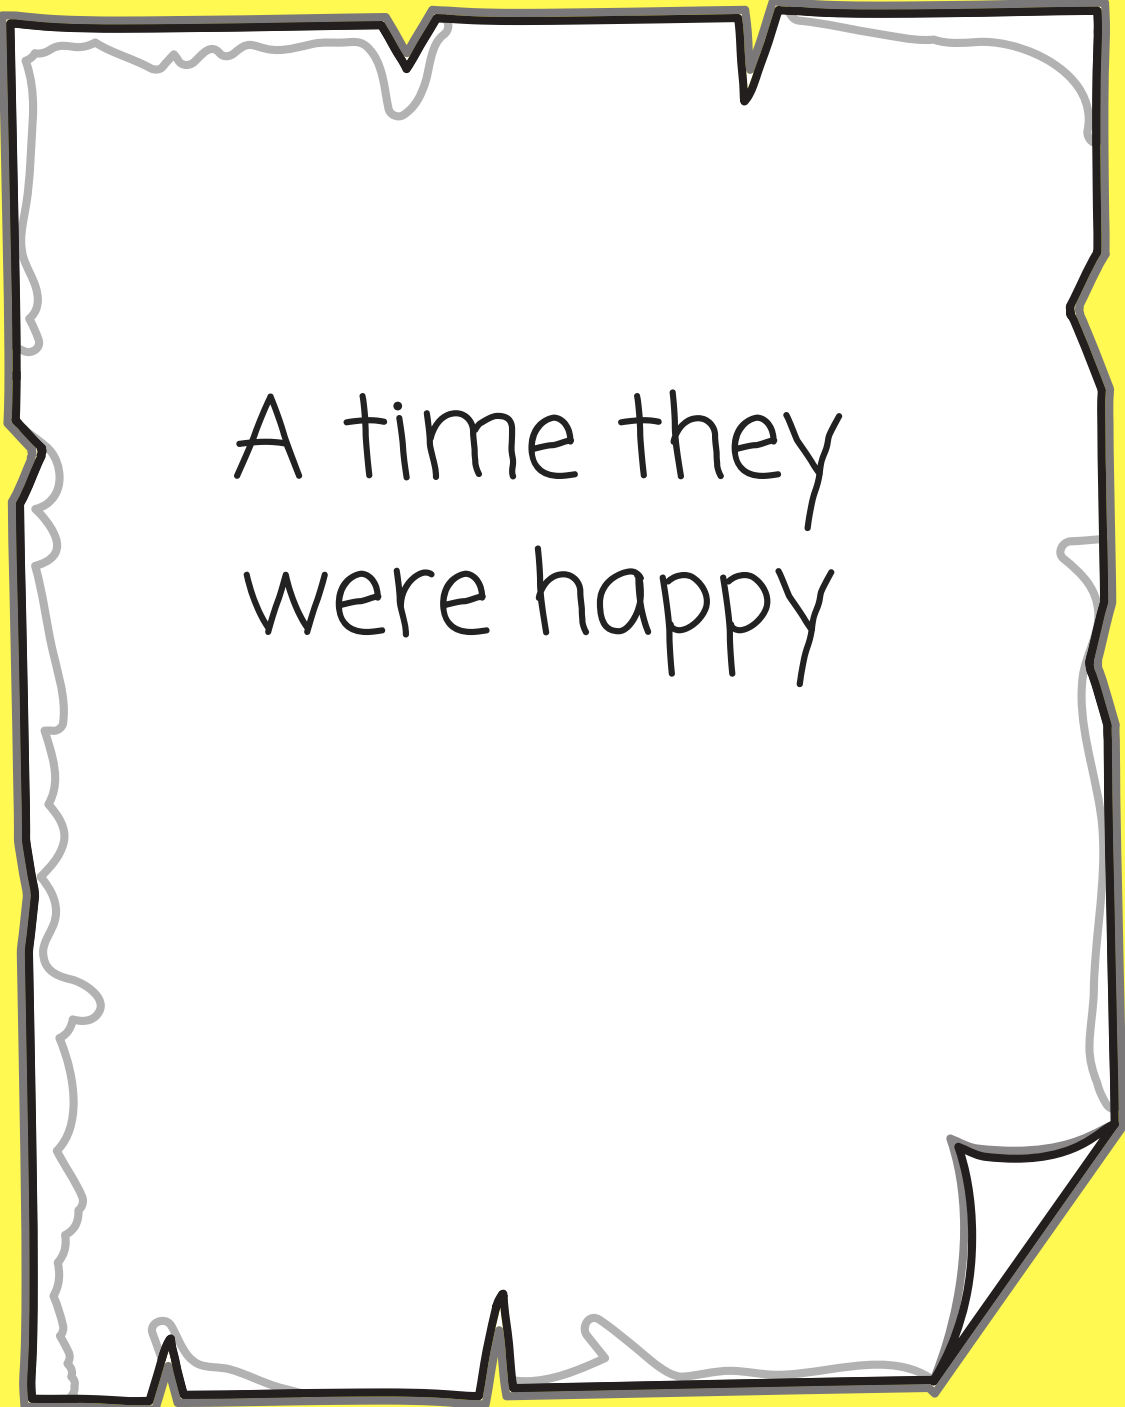

One year
before the start of the play

The thing
which hurt
them most in life

The day they met their best friend

A piece of white paper with a thick black outline and a jagged, torn edge. The paper is set against a solid yellow background. The text "A time they were happy" is written in a simple, black, sans-serif font in the center of the paper. The paper has several small holes and tears, particularly along the top and bottom edges, and a larger tear on the right side. The bottom right corner of the paper is folded over.

A time they were happy

A time they were anxious
